- Discuss the adoption process and create an adoption plan that is perfect for you.
- Receive your expectant mother information packet in an unmarked package or fill out the forms online.
- Complete and return all forms in the envelope provided, with a proof of pregnancy.
- An expectant mother services coordinator will call you and let you know we received your information. She will be there for you every step of the way to help you and answer your questions.
- Receive financial assistance and reasonable living expenses. (if allowed in your home state)
- If needed, your coordinator will assist you with making necessary travel arrangements and will inform you of all the details.
- If desired, you will relocate to A Guardian Angel Adoptions, LLC housing located in Utah.
- If relocating to our housing, your coordinator will pick you up from the airport or bus station; she will take you to your apartment and get you settled. The coordinator will assist you with weekly grocery shopping, doctor visits, counseling visits, and other places you may need to visit.
- Review adoptive family profiles and choose the perfect family for your baby. You then may interview the family by phone and meet them in person, if you desire.
- Make a delivery plan before the baby is due that best fits your desires.
- Your coordinator will be with you through the labor and delivery of your baby.
- No sooner than 24 hours after the baby is born you may sign documents consenting to the adoption. You will have the support, the love and the understanding you will need through this process.
- You rest and recover at your apartment for up to 10 days after delivery.
- Travel plans will then be made for you to return home.
